

Name: The Honorable Ronald L. Williams

Date of Birth: October 2, 1966

Education: Voorhees College – Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics, Clark Atlanta University – Master of Science Degree in Computer Science

Occupation: Assistant Professor of Computer Science at Voorhees College, worked as an instructor of Computer Technology at Denmark Technical College

Political Experience: 8 years on Varnville Town Council

Public Service/Community Involvement: Former board member for Hampton School District 1, Voorhees College Board of Trustees Faculty Representative, Denmark Technical College Advisory Committee, Conference of Black Municipal Elected Officials of South Carolina, Member of the Municipal Association of South Carolina, Who's Who Among America's Teachers, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Incorporated, Voorhees College Alumni Association President – Hampton County, Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Inc., Computer Society (IEEE-CS), Association for Computing Machinery, Member of Antioch Masonic Lodge #91

Key Goals for Varnville: Accountability to residents and making town government more transparent to the residents; downtown revitalization; upgrade water and sewer; improve parks and recreation; improve town beautification; implement a town wide action plan for addressing public health, workforce productivity, juvenile crime, drop-out prevention, and student achievement

Family/Personal Information: Member of Samaritan Baptist Church.